

Public Accounts Default And the Pension (Karnataka Extension and (Amendment) Bill 1978.

Motion to consider

SRI S. M. YAHYA. (Minister for Finance).—Sir I beg to move :

“That the Public Accounts Default and the Pension (Karnataka Extension and Amendment) Bill, 1978 be taken into consideration.”

The question was proposed.

These are two Central Acts which we would like to extend to the whole of Karnataka. One is the Public Accounts Default Act of 1950 & other is the Pension Act of 1871. As far as public Accounts Default Act of 1950 is concerned, this will help the Government to have security from the accountants working in Public Departments if there is misappropriation or loss of money. This will help the Government to hold such persons responsible and to recover the amount. As far as the other Act is concerned, it is a simple Act. There are certain discrepancies between the Act and the regulations thereof. We would like to avoid discrepancies if any, by extending the Pensions Act of 1871 to the entire Karnataka.

MR. SPEAKER.—I will put the consideration motion to the vote of the House. The question is :

“That the Public Accounts Default and the Pension (Karnataka Extension and Amendment) Bill, 1978, be taken into consideration”.

The Motion was adopted.
